

Impetium

The Creativity Movement online magazine

Sermon from Solitary:

The Tenth Anniversary

Interview:

TCM Poland

The perfect mate

Klassen's Teachings:

Where does YOUR First Loyalty lie?

Issue 1

march 40 A.C.

Sermon from Solitary: The Tenth Anniversary

My Brothers and Sisters! This month marks the tenth year since I was wrongly arrested and imprisoned for crimes I did not commit. It has been a long ordeal but I have endured. I have endured for my family, for myself, and, most importantly, for you and our great Cause. I have spent about 3,650 days, my entire imprisonment, in solitary confinement. I say this because I want you to understand that if I can endure the extreme hardships of being an innocent man locked away within a dungeon for thousands of days, you can endure anything that you face as free men and women fighting for the salvation of our racial life. Our persecutors meant to destroy me and destroy our Church by imprisoning me. I am happy to say they failed on both counts. They failed because the truth is stronger than their lies. Though its leader was imprisoned, our church lives on and is growing. Though I am imprisoned, I am still working to straighten out our people's thinking and I am otherwise remaining productive within these walls. Yes, we were hurt badly and there is no denying that. Yes, valuable progress was lost and I have personally experienced great suffering. However, we have not been broken. We retain our love of life, our positive attitude, and our resolve for victory. We retain our hope that the cancer of multiracialism will be replaced by a Racial Loyalist future. When confronted by a tornado of pure evil, our flame of love, truth, and hope did not go out and that which did not break us has made us stronger.

Today, ten years after I was physically taken away from you, my case for freedom is pending in court and it is a great one. You can read all about it by writing our good Brother Wes Smith at torontocreator@hotmail.com and asking him to send you the three legal filings from the case. However, no matter what the outcome may be, I call upon you to do your duty and win our White people to the cause of Racial Loyalty. You must take to the streets and wave our Flag. You must preach the word of Creativity to our brethren everywhere. You must utilize all forms of technology so as to reach our people best. You must have the courage to speak up when previously you were silent. You must speak with absolute confidence that our cause is right. Your activism must be so dynamic that the controlled mass media cannot resist covering it. I myself have literally not sat in any easy chair for ten years and you must not sit in any easy chair either. A better future must be your doing!

It is my hope that I will rejoin you out there soon but whether I do or not, the cause goes on and must be won. It is a victory that is by no means impossible. In fact, events are moving steadily in our direction. We can assure and secure the existence of our race for all time upon this planet as our First Commandment directs. It is the present multi-racialist order that is coming to an end!

My Brothers and Sisters! We have much to look forward to. Our people are continuing to wake up all around the world; the present order is what is falling apart. You must now kick down the rotten door and do so with a smile on your face. White Life!

Reverend Matt Hale

Interview:

TCM POLAND

TCM Poland is one of the most active European branches of TCM. But, besides your own work in spreading Creativity, do you also work together with other orgs and individuals?

Yes we do work with others, both officially and unofficially. An example of official form of co-operation was translation of David Duke's "Jewish Supremacism" book, together with a member of NOP (National Rebirth of Poland) party. We are going to print and release that book ourselves, however. Among unofficial forms of support for other circles I could mention participation in nationalist manifestations and help in organizing "Stop Afrikaner Genocide" petition and charity donation we gave DiN (Pride and Modernity) association. You know – what is good for the white race is the highest virtue for us.

Your country is relatively new add-on to EU, as is our going to be soon, unfortunately. What can you tell us about your experiences, did the life get better economically, and did the laws change, and by laws I am referring to laws regarding free speech?

Life hasn't got better economically and it definitely will not. The fact is prices of fuel and food has been constantly growing since Poland joined EU and it will be even worse when Euro replaces our national currency, as Slovakian example showed. The salaries seem not to grow at all, and when you get any increase, next month welcomes you with higher prices of almost everything. The average level of inflation in 2012 was 3,7 percentage points, while prices increased 4 or 4,1 per cent. The unemployment rate in the poorest provinces is like 16-21 per cent. Recent forecast says, that only 390 thousands (white) children are going to be born this year in Poland.

Of that 390 thousands, 132 thousands families is so poor that they apply to government for welfare that is 250 Euros, payable on a one-off basis! After that, they are totally on their own, the government will not do anything to help them. The economical reality reflects on the birth rate, that recently equals only 1,31. It's clear that "economical crisis" in our country is a masked program of white genocide. People are getting poorer every day and the media and politicians tell us to be happy, because we have new sidewalks, playgrounds and roads sponsored by EU and few new stadiums for Euro 2012 Cup. A lot of public money is being spend for is promotion of multiculturalism and subsidy of non-whites – you can see billboards with poor niggers and gooks crying for your money daily. As for the law changes you're asking for, I can tell you that two years ago the NRA (Supreme Bar Council) published a report in which it says, Poles are the most often kept under surveillance citizens of the EU, which means, of course, we have the biggest number of taps and the thicker monitoring web. In 2011 police requested for phone billings 2 million times, while Secret Service nearly 200 thousand times! Welcome to Orwellian "1984", people! Aside of that, ZOG tried to censor the Internet with ACTA, but surprisingly people woke up for a moment and went on the streets to show their anger, so the idea was suspended for a time being (EU is currently working on INDECT system and the Polish Secret Service is working on system allowing them to identify people hiding their identity behind proxy or Tor web). The policemen they got new weapons, like sonic inhibitors that are able to damage your hearing permanently. Now they are also allowed to shoot you whenever you're considered to be "a terrorist" (a pregnant woman could be considered a suicidal terrorist with explosives on their belly and shot dead for instance, so the law says). It is illegal to hide your face during public demonstrations (but people still do that, of course). Also our rights for public gatherings were aggravated – now all responsibility (financial and criminal liability) for course of a gathering or a demo lies on the shoulders of the organizer, so it's not a surprise that police provocations are most common phenomenon. Brutal police actions against nationalists and football fans show cops are unpunished, no matter what they do to you, despite all evidences like witness' testimony or video documentation of their assaults.

The new crime was defined by the law – that is "terror inciting" – only the thing is, nobody defined what exactly could it be, so technically, every anti-government/pro-white action could apply in this category, it depends on prosecutor's opinion. There is a project of European Parliament that will allow customs to open every postal package that comes from outside EU, and to destroy its content without any jury verdict, if only customs say "there is something against the law in this package". "Polish" government proposed a law change regarding "hate speech" – you could spend up to two years behind the bars for insulting a faggot. We have a new act regarding mandatory injections – for example if parents refuse injections for their children, they could lose their parental laws and they children could be taken away. I could list even more here, but let's stop in here. I think you can see the overall image of EU membership "benefits".

Poland, as well as our countries of Eastern Europe, are well known by Straight Edge subculture among white nationalists. What can you tell us about that phenomenon?

It is true that Straight Edge is popular phenomenon in the Eastern Europe, but it doesn't apply to Poland. The level of drunkenness is very high among our youth and nationalists too and I could say alcohol addiction is the biggest roadblock to get them active on any level. Most of them are interested only in collecting music records, having fun at concerts and drinking alcohol (as well as in football matches and hooliganism), or to get drunk just after end of the demonstration, for instance. The excuse of these weak people is "alcohol is not a drug" and "drinking is a Polish tradition". Since 2009 we have autonomous nationalists here in Poland and I can tell you aside they are active guys there are some SxE folks among them, what makes me very happy. We Creators know that nationalism is not a solution for our present problems, but having totally drug-free and pro-white activists should make us really happy, after all. I hope that Straight Edge fashion will come from Russia, Ukraine and Belarus to my country soon. I've been absolutely "clean" for almost three years now, and I can tell you I used to be a heavy drinker in times. I am also proud to tell you, that not so long ago few new people joined Polish TCM chapter and they all are Straight Edge. Hopefully they are not the last ones. My dream is to work with SxE Creators exclusively. Stay away from drugs people, drugs are bad – just watch some lectures of Russian professor Zhdanov, if you still don't believe it.

You work on translating books, do you focus only on Klassen's books or do you translate other authors also?

I scheduled translation and printing of four books, that is: "Nature's Eternal Religion" by Ben Klassen, "Jewish Supremacism" by David Duke, "March of the Titans" by Arthur Kemp and "Erectus amongst us" by Richard D. Fuerle. We translated first two and released the first one so far, the second one is going to be out soon. As you can see, there is only one strict "creator" book on that list. I chose those fantastic books because I intend to expand what Klassen said in "NER" – he gave us the overall image of Jewish conspiracy, but Duke gives us tremendous details, especially in modern times, quoting mostly Jewish (!) sources. Klassen said that we, whites, are the great ones with glorious past and great achievements; Kemp proves that this is true and shows us evidences that ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia and India were white, for instance, just as Klassen said. Klassen said that we are genetically unique and there is a huge distance between us and colored races, and also, that race mixing leads to white genocide and to decline of civilization. Fuerle's book gives us tremendous evidences here and sends so called "Out of Africa" theory to a trash can. It is also relevant that none of those books is in conflict with our creed, with a little exception of Duke's views on Christ-insanity. After releasing all those books we plan to make a professional movie based upon all of them, in style of "Zeitgeist" or "Endgame", excluding any bogus information those movies contain, and broadcast it for free in the Internet. We also translated the article written by Spanish nationalists behind Europa Soberana blog, entitled "New racial classification", that is a huge step in physical anthropology since Third Reich times.

Do you get a lot of inquiries from people in your country?

We could say so, but there are weeks of deaf silence too. People showed a big interest after medial slander that took place in 2010, there were also a lot of e-mails after we announced “NER” is out. Alas, some people asking about the book apparently think that 8 Euros is far too much and reply never again. I suppose it is not too much for them to pay 8 € for couple of beers on Saturday night, however. Most of people who ask about membership never replies when informed they must end up for real with their Catholicism (or any other religion) by apostasy and to be unconditionally active in their neighborhood. Thus all such inquires are being treated as spam or anti-white provocation attempts.

Some people tend to qualify Creativity as an "American thing", despite the fact that Klassen was born in Ukraine, of German ethnicity, and his work is universal and applicable everywhere. But still, some characters use the fact that this movement originated in US as a so called proof that it is not applicable to Europe. How do you respond to such claims?

This is the most common argument of people who claim to be dedicated to the most anti-white and egalitarian religion (namely Christ-insanity) that was created by totally alien, Jewish element, whose biggest faction is being controlled by the foreign country of Vatican, whose officials come from various countries and even from few different races, that includes niggers and Jews among others. That is cosmopolitism and multiculturalism at its best, but being a hypocrite is a typical Christian behavior, that's nihil novi. Now, all those “conservative” and “traditional” Christians, focused on obscure “hereafter” rather than reality, and controlled by such a multiracial egalitarian agenda claim that “TCM wants to replace traditional national heritages and European traditions with white multiculturalism”.

Let's see how hypocritical those people are by claiming “something that originated in a foreign country is not applicable here”. Christianity was invented by the Jewish tribe in Palestine, monarchy originates from the Ancient - “pagan” - Egypt, the idea of democracy (so much different from the present one) was invented in Ancient – “pagan” - Greece, origins of Senate come from ancient – unchristian – Rome, and so on. Now, our (Christian) adversaries incorporate (or used to incorporate) all of these more or less ALIEN ideas as their own and claim them to part of OUR civilization while they were invented by other nations, after all (some of them related to us racially, yes, but that's not the point here). Either they should drop all these non sequitur argumentation of “how adapting alien ideas is bad” when it comes to accepting Creativity or drop ALL inventions of other nations aside their own for good – that includes foreign cuisine, money invented by Phoenicians, gun powder invented by Chinese or martial arts created by various Asian nations and so on. Let me make this clear – let's say you're a Croat and you don't want to accept Creativity, just because it originates the States, the foreign, alien country. Fine. Then never again get in the car – it was invented by a Frenchman. Throw out all your light bulbs, because they were invented by an American, as well as your telephone, invented by a Scot. Otherwise you are a big hypocrite, my friend, because some really USEFUL and PRODUCTIVE “alien inventions” are good by your standards and some are not, obviously. Remember – there is nothing immoral or unjustified in using any “alien” inventions, if only they are beneficial for us. Just see how all non-white races use everything we invented against us. Are we going to let them win?

Recently, there are some nationalist orgs in Slavic countries that explicitly promote pan-slavism, as sort of a solution for all of our political problems. What are your views on pan-slavism?

This is very outdated idea and it's not enough for our present situation. The only positive aspect of it nowadays could be better relations with our Eastern, often hated white Slavic neighbors – Byelorussians, Ukrainians and Russians, who suffered really hard times because of Jewish red terror. They often are portrayed as our communist oppressors what is very biased information. But on the other hand, I'd be more happy to see my country having better relations with the strong state of Russia, rather than licking ass of EU and USA/NATO. We all know that Russia is being controlled by ex-KGB agents and Jewish criminals, but somehow it didn't support Israel in it's recent clash with Iran. I'm not a "fan" of Iran, but if they wiped out the Zionist state from the map and heavily suffered themselves in such a conflict, it would be good for us, whites. Multiculturalism still isn't strong in Eastern European countries (I mean there is virtually very few non-whites when you compare those countries to Western Europe/America/Australia), there is a lot of living space there and resources hidden under Russian territories will be important for our survival in near future. Be as it may, we can hardly find any "pan-slavism" or "pan-germanism" whatsoever anywhere outside Internet forums these days, so let's just focus on our job that is building racial consciousness as a prelude to future white racial socialist community.

We have all met racially conscious people that abandoned Christian religion because they saw what it really stands for, but some of them went from Christian spooks in the sky towards occult and their version of spooks. Some even believe that white race descended from some aliens thousands of years ago etc. What do you think of that?

I cannot agree with you. If those people who abandoned Christian spooks and fell in love with "Aryan" spooks had saw what Christ-insanity is really all about and how it affects the white man's life, they most probably would have chosen Creativity instead. The problem is they know nothing about Christianity nor about Judaism. They think Christianity is a silly religion of good and cherish people, while they are "militant bloodthirsty neo-Vikings, practicing religion of our forefathers. They claim to "practice" it only because it used to be a religion of our forefathers, not because it has any practical application. In a fact, they failed to see most religions have practical application, while paganism doesn't have it at all. If they had knew what is the purpose of Judaism and what Judaic scripts like Talmud and Torah tell the Jews, they would have stand by our side. Our goal is to show such people religions are systems of moral values which shape human mass into a form. Once they understand it, they will most likely join us in the real fight for survival of our race.

There are those people who think that Russia is the last hope for white uprising, there are also others who think the same for US, and there are also those who live in their little nationalist fantasies and think that small nations of 5 or 10 million people will win their freedom on their own. What do you think is indeed going to happen in near future when we hit the critical mass?

I predict that in next few decades Western Europe and at least part of US/Canada declines, just as it happened to ancient Mesopotamia, Egypt, India, Greece and Rome. For example, recent forecast says that Norway will become majority non-white in around ten years' time, Britain in thirty and so on.; due to promotion of "diversity" (white genocide) sexual assaults have increased 500% in Sweden etc. In my opinion Eastern European countries and areas like Pacific Northwest/Northern parts of Canada/Alaska are the last hope for our survival. We should do our best to wake up our people in Eastern Europe so we could send back all the non-whites from these countries and we should promote white re-immigration among the Westerners – I'd love to see Afrikaners, who are great farmers, moving to Eastern Europe rather than being killed by bloodthirsty black savages in the RSA. I would love to see Germans migrating back to Silesia, Pomerania and Prussia and rebuilding their beauty and greatness rather than being mixed with hordes of non-whites in their present state. Most of Lower Silesian, Prussian and Pomeranian villages are highly devastated and have been extremely poor since the day Jewish communists came and drove out their German inhabitants. Germans are very productive and harmonious nation, I strongly believe they could rebuild beauty of these lands and give decent jobs to their poor and often unemployed Polish inhabitants. The historical record is clear: those people who do not possess a territory in which they form the majority population, are doomed to extinction. We should start new, exclusively white racial state in the Eastern Europe, where whites fleeing from the West could settle in peace. Similar state could be formed in the Pacific Northwest/Canada/Alaska. The resources of vast lands of Russia and Arctic would be sufficient for us, vast fields of Poland, Ukraine and Russia would feed many of us. In few generations, with much higher birth rate, we could start re-conquer those lands occupied by the non-whites and expand our territories once again. Some skeptics may say, that all those whites migrating to the Eastern Europe wouldn't have anything to start a new life in here. That may be only a half-truth – first whites who migrated from Europe to America after Columbus didn't have much either, just like whites who settled South Africa and Australia, nevertheless they build powerful countries by their own hands. Remember, that we are not talking here about any mud parasites looking for a welfare and easy life, but about productive and hard working white people. If they will have a higher goal (that is survival and expansion), they will work twice harder. The new Ice Age is coming, and when Northern Europe, Alps and Carpathians will be covered with glaciers again, niggers and muds will start to drop like flies, due to a lack of vitamin D.

So, either they die out in all those once white lands, or they will be forced to move southward and it will be much easier to defy them. Note that they will have no new technologies nor good medical care; will be just savages involved in tribal wars. Our Cro-Magnon and Neanderthal ancestors survived previous Ice Age, so we, more advanced technologically, can survive it all the more. The only problem is some small group of white people must survive until that Ice Age comes, that is like approx. one thousand years. If they do, they will rebuild white population once more and this time white man will forge his future according to the eternal laws of nature, as Ben Klassen foreseen.

What are your biggest roadblocks in spreading Creativity in your country, and what are your future plans for TCM in Poland?

Money. Quoting Jack Nicholson from the "Shining": "Just give me the money and I'll do &*& for you". The Jews are so powerful in brain-polluting our people because they have a lot of money, not because they're clever or tricky. I know exactly what to do to awake our white people but still I need more men and more money. Our future plan is to grow in numbers, to release those 3 books I mentioned above and to make a professional movie based upon them. Thank you very much for this interview. Racial regards to all good white people from Croatia.

Brother Thomas

The perfect mate

It has been observed by me that white people seem to care more about the breed of their dog than the breed of their offspring. As backward as it may seem even the most productive and genetically sound members of our race prefer to have dogs over children. Perhaps they feel fulfilled by the fact that they have a creature that needs very little time and attention compared to a child. This is something I do not understand. In the 16 commandments of Creativity we are told, "Be fruitful and multiply. Do your part in helping to populate the world with your own kind. It is our sacred goal to populate the lands of this earth with White people exclusively." Not "populate the earth with superior breeds of dog".

Which brings me to my next point. We clearly do demonstrate an ability to manipulate genetics towards the positive in regards to animals. Not only with dogs but livestock and produce. This just seems to be one of the ways our people are superior to other races who share our world. This is why the want our blood.

Even when our people choose to have children it seems very little thought is put into the genetic quality of the partners we are choosing. The idea of genetic upbreeding which we clearly display competence in with dogs apparently does not extend towards our own peoples children. This seems to be a sad-product of the society that we live in.

Typically a certain amount of genetic aptitude tests come naturally in humans and are a bit passive. This is something that displays itself when we show physical attraction towards a member of the opposite sex. It is an instinct. A display of Natures higher wisdom yet again. The emotion and physical response is very real in attraction. It goes much deeper than just bio-chemical though.

Women tend to be attracted to males they find to be type "Alpha". Strong leadership skills, dominance, aggressiveness (often displayed by how hard and long he pursues her and seeks to gain her attention and praise), and ability to provide are all things she is considering. Males will tend to be attracted to facial beauty and symmetry proportionate fat content on breasts and hips (essentially the hourglass shape-demonstrates an innate ability to not only carry a child but nurture it), her vulnerability, her sex drive in regards to loyalty, his ability to dominate and lead her and her nurturing ability. These particular things are not something we are typically aware right of the bat unless they are of but seem to be written somewhere in our genetic code for survival. These things reside in us for the sole purpose of driving us and guiding us to breed and breed well. For women it assures survival and safety and for men it assures comfort. This is all part of the higher equation and evolutionary task.

So, when you are attracted to someone there is a much higher amount of stimulation both chemically and neurologically than say, someone less genetically agreeable. So it makes one wonder what would happen if we chose to listen to and embrace this knowledge and utilized it to further our racial genetic goals as it was intended. How often do we take this a step further and truly and consciously choose a partner based on qualities both physical and mental that their genetics will provide?

Modern thought however erroneous it might be encourages us to seek partners designed for immediate gratification of some emotional or physical need. Almost everything in this world is instantaneous and it's not a stretch to believe that we have become used to turning off instincts and ignoring natural drives merely to survive in the multicultural cesspools that we call home. Are our people simply able to switch off Nature so easily or do they just need to be reminded from time to time? No matter how unproductive or immature immediate gratification is....we have become numb to instinct so it is what we do. If things continue along the same path as they are now the consequences could be dire. Give it time to fester and grow and it will become the new instinct as species can and will adapt to it's environment. As our numbers continue to dwindle it is absolutely imperative that the future generations have the very best genetic foundation to build upon.

The answers to these questions are readily available when we choose to step up and embrace a commitment to Natural law. So, now it is time to ask the more poignant questions to find the answer. Are we encouraging our Sons and Daughters and selves to seek mates with the strongest survival characteristics that will mix with our own to provide the genetic cocktail that will provide for the future sustainability of our great race? Will we be stuck in superficiality brought on by our enemies in the media? Love is all well and good but isn't there a little more to think about besides the initial hormonal response we feel about a potential mate? It may take some time to find a good match but it is worth the commitment. The concept of "love" is continually supported and reaffirmed by watching and nurturing the children that are a product of discern ability. If we can choose to love then why are we not choosing to love the best of the best? The warm and fuzzy feelings associated with love are also evolutionary by-products helping us to attract and bond with a mate. Another unmistakable nudge from Nature.

I'm hardly suggesting that we attempt to shut down sex drive. Perhaps the key is to slow the whole process down a bit and become aware of it all.

So with all of these things being said I give you commandment twelve: "It is our duty and our privilege to further Nature's plan by striving towards the advancement and improvement of our future generations."

Sister WFH

Klassen's Teachings:
Where does your First Loyalty lie?

Several years ago I was invited to Kansas City to give a speech. (I was only one speaker amongst several others). It was a group of White "Patriots," but of mixed political and philosophical ideologies. There were Klansmen, born-again Christians, John Birchers and a variety of other groups. Outside of several F.B.I., agents in disguise, the majority of this mixed group were good White people, except that most of them were sorely confused as to where their loyalty lay. They all had little in common except perhaps that they were alarmed that something was wrong, and clung to that tired and hackneyed position of God, Country, the Flag and the Constitution - each in his or her disjointed way.

The subject of my speech was the same as the last part of the title of this article, namely God & Country, etc. It was not well received. I told them what they did not want to hear, namely that their pet holy cows never were, and are not now, the solution to the multitude of evils and problems that beset the White Race, nor had they ever been the real issues in the past.

I reminded them of the history of our pointless and ineffective struggles ever since WW II in which the "patriots," the "conservatives," the "right wingers" and what have you, had launched at least 20,000 different organizations, large and small, seemingly to stem the tide. Despite all this, they had not made the slightest dent in the headlong onslaught by the Jewish power structure to destroy the White Race, to destroy America, and in fact, to destroy the civilization the White Race has built up over the last several thousand years.

I asked the rhetorical question: After 30 years and 20,000 failures, isn't it time to re-examine our basic premises? If you were building aqueducts on the premise that water voluntarily ran uphill and after 30 years every one of the aqueducts was a dismal failure, would you not stop and re-evaluate your basic premise, and perhaps conclude that water did not run uphill?

I then proceeded to show as clearly as I knew how. That none of these factors; God, Country, Flag or the Constitution were the basic Issues. In none of these lay the real solution. I went to the heart of the matter and stated bluntly - the real issue is race - the survival, expansion and advancement of the White Race and the real enemies are the mud races of the world, led by that conspiratorial master-sneak of all time, the perfidious Jew.

As I explained earlier, this was a mixed group. Although all White, it consisted of polyglot philosophies, each going their own way, like the six blind men from Indostan who went to "see" an elephant. As could be expected from any polyglot group, nothing was accomplished, no common ground was reached, no worthwhile program pursued or anything else of value accomplished. Just as it is impossible to accomplish anything worthwhile with a heterogeneous polyglot society or country, so also is it impossible to accomplish anything with a heterogeneous polyglot group. Furthermore, since the group was programmed along the Christian-Conservative (I prefer to call it Kosher-Conservative) line, I realized that it was impossible to de-program years of indoctrination within the limits of a 20 minute speech.

However, to my surprise, it was not a total loss. Whereas the individuals had been too intimidated to express approval of such heresy as I had enunciated among their peers, later in the evening an encouraging number privately showed both their interest and approval by coming to my room, purchasing copies of NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION and also of the record SURVIVAL OF THE WHITE RACE. (The WHITE MAN'S BIBLE had not yet been printed).

In this essay, I want to explain briefly why we CREATORS believe it is a lost cause to pursue the favorite Kosher-Conservative line. Let us briefly examine each one of the four subjects with which these Kosher-Conservatives are so enamored.

Let us take the first item - "God." In both NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION and the WHITE MAN'S BIBLE I have already thoroughly belabored the illusions about supplicating to the non-existent spooks in the sky. I believe I have demonstrated amply, page after page that the whole subject is one vast swindle that has been a very useful tool for the Jewish conquest of the world, but has been a major catastrophe for the White Race. We of The Creativity Movement not only are convinced that no spook will emerge to help save the White Race, but on the contrary, that the childish and superstitious belief in spooks has been one of the major road blocks preventing the White Race from forming and polarizing around a racial religion of our own for thousands of years.

We now turn next to the concept of "Country." This subject, too, I have covered in the chapter "Where does your Loyalty Lie?" in NATURE'S ETERNAL RELIGION. Also I have touched on this in Creative Credo No. 2 of the WHITE MAN'S BIBLE where I emphasize racial loyalty and that every issue is examined through the eyes of the White Race. But let me briefly recapitulate here.

A "Country" is an artificial, man-made concept that usually encompasses a certain area of real estate upon the face of the earth. Its boundaries too, are artificial, and in a constant state of change. In times of conquest these boundaries may be moved to enlarge the territory. In times of defeat the boundaries are moved to shrink the subject area. Sometimes a whole country may be artificially created out of a conglomerate of other countries and peoples, as was Czechoslovakia after WW I. Sometimes a whole country is swallowed up and annexed to the conqueror's territory, as has been the case with Poland a number of times during its history. In any case, a country is a fluid, unstable and artificial creation structured by the political establishment in power at the time. In the last several centuries, the hand of the Jew has been the most powerful influence in both structuring and demolishing such political entities.

But let us analyze a "Country" one step further and determine whether or not it should deserve that most precious gift - our primary loyalty.

When we speak of "Country," such as say the United States of America, we are speaking of at least three separate and distinct components: (a) There is the land and real estate encompassed within its boundaries. (b) There are its people that occupy this same real estate, and (c) There to its government that controls both the land and its occupants.

Whereas we Creators believe strongly in the sanctity of land and territory, that it is worth fighting and dying for, we want to immediately add: Yes, but for whose benefit? If it is for the benefit of the White Race, definitely yes. But if it is of benefit for the Jews, the niggers and the mud races, definitely, no.

Looking at the history of the U.S., outside of the War with Mexico, 1846-48, and the Indian wars, practically every war the U.S. has engaged in since has been to the detriment of the White Race and for the benefit of the Jews. This includes the Civil War, WW I, WW II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War. In this category we must also include the vast quantities of aid, the tens of billions of dollars that the U.S. has rendered to the Jews in helping them carve out the bandit state of Israel and its subsequent aggressive wars